St. Anselm 2nd Annual New England Holistic Nursing Conference
“Holistic Nursing: How Do We Determine the Research Evidence for Practice?”
September, 2012

Rothlyn Zahourek

Selected References

Useful Web Sites

AHNA web site research section www.AHNA.org/research has an itemized lists of studies, abstracts, articles and book chapters in their entirety and resources.

Cochrane reports – integrative review of modalities (http://www.compmed.umn.edu/integrative/cochrane_reviews.asp)

NCCAM's site of research results re modalities http://nccam.nih.gov/cgi-bin/bibliography.cgi

Reiki: The study summaries provided by the Center for Reiki Research are a good source for information on Reiki Research http://www.centerforreikiresearch.org/

Healing Touch International, Inc Bibliography - This bibliography includes nearly 200 articles about Healing Touch, published from 1992 to 2009 http://www.healingtouchinternational.org/?option=com_content&task=view&id=103&Itemid=209

Institute of Noetic Sciences (IONS) Research Page

http://www.noetic.org/research/overview/

The Samueli Institute has a research section. The Institute is funding efforts to support healing environments and to advance the understanding of healing. http://www.siib.org/research/research-home/mind-and-healing.html

The Council for Healing http://councilforhealing.org/ and the International Journal of Caring and Healing are both free and have useful information about research in holism and healing as well as other clinical issues. http://www.wholistichealingresearch.com/ijhchome