Survey Notes

These results are from a Saint Anselm College Survey Center poll based on online surveys of 1411 New Hampshire likely voters. Surveys were collected between August 17th and 18th, 2026, from cell phone users randomly drawn from a sample of registered voters reflecting the demographic and partisan characteristics of the voting population. Names were presented in random order for the favorability and ballot tests. The survey has an overall margin of sampling error of +/- 2.6% with a confidence interval of 95%. The data are weighted for age, gender, geography, and education based on a voter demographic model derived from historical voting patterns, but are not weighted by party registration or party identification.

Summary of Findings

New Hampshire Institute of Politics Executive Director Neil Levesque summarized the results, saying, “Republicans are still on the back foot as the midterm elections draw near. An unpopular President and an unpopular war are causing problems for candidates even as negative attacks on Democrats are finding their mark. Governor Kelly Ayotte is still managing to buck the political headwinds and has gained some ground over challenger Cinde Warmington.”

- The war in Iran is hurting Republican candidates. 60% of respondents say they are less likely to support a Republican in the fall elections due to the war.
- Voters no longer trust the Republican Party as much as the Democratic Party on economic issues. Republicans now trail 46%-39% on this question, down from an even 40%-40% in June. The Democratic Party now enjoys a wide lead on affordability issues, 48%-36%.
- President Donald Trump’s approval has stabilized. After dipping in June, Trump’s job approval sits at 37%, matching his favorability.
- Governor Kelly Ayotte remains relatively popular. 50% now approve of the job she is doing, while 51% have a favorable opinion of her.
- The Democratic lead on the generic ballot continues to widen. 52% of respondents now say they will likely support a Democratic candidate for Congress in the fall elections.
- The primary elections are taking shape as voters gain familiarity with candidates. Congressman Chris Pappas continues to enjoy a commanding lead over first-time candidate Karishma Manzur in the Democratic race for the U.S. Senate nomination, 59%-28%. On the Republican side, former US Senator John E. Sununu continues to lead former US Senator Scott Brown, 54%-24%. Democratic Party Vice Chair Maura Sullivan and former Portsmouth City Councilor Stefany Shaheen are in a statistical dead heat atop a crowded field in the 1st Congressional District Democratic Congressional primary, with 26% and 24%, respectively. Businessman Anthony DiLorenzo has vaulted atop the field in the 1st Congressional District Republican Congressional primary with 30%, followed by business owner Hollie Noveletsky with 17%. Incumbent Congresswoman Maggie Goodlander continues to lead challenger Paige Beauchemin, 66%-17%, in the 2nd Congressional District Democratic primary. Lily Tang Williams leads Victor Orlando, 53%-7%, in her bid to draw a rematch against Goodlander.

- Congressman Pappas' popularity has declined significantly, but he continues to lead both of his potential opponents. 51% of respondents now have an unfavorable opinion of Pappas, up from 43% in June. Despite this deterioration, he continues to enjoy leads over both Brown (49%-37%) and Sununu (48%-41%).
- Ayotte's re-election chances have grown as challenger Cinde Warmington's popularity has declined. Unfavorable voter opinion of Warmington now sits at 37%, up from 27% in June. Ayotte now leads Warmington by 11 points (49%-38%), up from 8 points.
- 2020 second-place finisher Pete Buttigieg continues to be the favorite in the New Hampshire Democratic Presidential Primary. The former Transportation Secretary enjoys the support of 25% of Democratic voters, followed by Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez with 17%. Support for early favorite California Governor Gavin Newsom continues to decline, and he now sits at 5th place with 7%.
- Secretary of State Marco Rubio continues to surge in the New Hampshire Republican Presidential Primary. Rubio is now just 2 points behind frontrunner Vice-President J.D. Vance, 38%-36%. No other potential candidate is in double digits.

The Saint Anselm College Survey Center (SACSC) was founded in the wake of the 2016 election, and launched its first poll in February 2018 as the midterm elections were getting underway. Housed within the New Hampshire Institute of Politics at Saint Anselm College, the Center conducts quarterly polls of New Hampshire voter attitudes and additional polls as circumstances warrant. This research supports the academic mission of the College, and provides students with a practical education in survey techniques while providing the public at large with insight into political opinion trends that impact the state's federal and gubernatorial elections. To support its operations, the Center performs commissioned research on behalf of nonprofit organizations and corporations.
