2022-2023 Income and Expense Worksheet

 Student Name

 Student ID

The income information that you/your parent(s) reported on your 2022-2023 FAFSA does not appear to provide sufficient financial support for the number of household family members reported on your 2022-2023 FAFSA.

Please complete this worksheet so we may accurately assess your family’s financial situation. Include information regarding income and expenses from the calendar year 2020 (from January 1, 2020 through December 31, 2020). Please upload the completed and signed form to your Anselmian Aid (formerly Net Partner) portal (under Required Documents & Critical Messages) or email to the Office of Financial Aid @ financial_aid@anselm.edu.

On the chart below, please list resources, benefits, and other amounts received by the student/parent and any other member of the household. Also list the expenses the family incurred in 2020.

The financial income/support section may include items that were not required to be reported on the FAFSA or other forms submitted to the financial aid office. Untaxed Social Security Benefits, SSI, Federal Veterans Education benefits, military housing allowance, SNAP, TANF, etc. must be reported on this form if received by a household family member in 2020.

Parental information should be reported for Dependent Students and student (and spouse) information should be reported for Independent Students.
