NEW HAMPSHIRE INSTITUTE OF POLITICS & POLITICAL LIBRARY

The New Hampshire Institute of Politics & Political Library brings unique civic, leadership, and political opportunities to Saint Anselm College. In the liberal arts tradition of the college, the Institute presents over 100 public programs and events annually featuring prominent journalists, authors, political and community leaders, and scholars, connecting politics and international affairs with the arts, current events, economics, ethics, history, philosophy, and theology.

In 2019, the Institute's speaker forums featured: CNN Legal Analyst Michael Zeldin, author Elaine Weiss to mark the 19th Amendment Centennial; John Della Volpe, Harvard Kennedy School, and presidential historian Jeffrey A. Engel, Southern Methodist University to mark the 30th anniversary of the fall of the Berlin Wall. In partnership with New England Council, the Institute hosted over twenty Politics & Eggs programs with: Julian Castro, Adam Schiff, John Delaney, Bill Weld, Kamala Harris, Eric Swalwell, Pete Buttigieg, Larry Hogan, Seth Moulton, Amy Klobuchar, Tim Ryan, Kirsten Gillibrand, Tulsi Gabbard, Cory Booker, Steve Bullock, Andrew Yang, Michael Bennet, Vice President Mike Pence, Deval Patrick, and Tom Steyer. In addition, the Institute partnered with WMUR for Conversation with the Candidate and Candidate Café programs featuring presidential candidates.

COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT & EXPERIENTIAL LEARNING

The mission of the Meelia Center for Community Engagement is to connect the college and the community, and sustain them as partners in addressing real-world challenges. The center promotes shared leadership and mutually beneficial engagement in its work in New Hampshire communities and beyond where transformative experiential learning, engaged scholarship and public service take place. During the 2018-2019 year, the Meelia Center worked with 50 non-profit agencies as service-learning or volunteer sites.

- 511 students participated in 38 service learning sections offered by 12 academic departments
