

* B indicates sites requiring some form of background check.
* FB indicates sites requiring fingerprinting and a background check.

Complete the Online Service Learning/Volunteer Application found at anselm.givepulse.com. After logging in via Anselm, search for the opportunity that interests you and click on it to apply. Follow the instructions. If you have any questions, please reach out to the student coordinator associated with the site you would like to work with or come into the Meelia Center.*

Spring 2020 Campus Opportunities

Access Academy - Access Academy, offered Mondays and Tuesdays, is an on-campus, educational after-school program serving refugee, immigrant and underrepresented Manchester high school students. Volunteers work with high school students to complete program requirements and participate in weekly program dinners. Volunteers can assist with curriculum development and implementation if they choose.

Access Academy (Monday) – Programs include: Explorando tu Mundo, Financial Literacy, Humanities of Nursing, Journalism, Web Development, Words Matter, and Playing with Words. M 3:30-5:30pm Contact: Ana Morrison -- amorrison109@Anselm.Edu; +B

Access Academy (Tuesday) - Programs include: College Admissions, College & Career Explorations, Environmental Science, Ethics & Your World, Theater, & Youth Activism. T 3:30-5:30pm Contact: Ana Morrison-- amorrison109@Anselm.Edu; +B

Spring 2020 Community Sites

21st Century - Assist with afterschool program at an inner-city elementary school. The program inspires all students to reach their full potential academically, socially and personally through support activities. M-F, 3-5pm Contact: Juli Cole - jcole966@anselm.edu; +FB

Animal Rescue League - Volunteers support the shelter in the following opportunities: dog care, cat care, general cleaning, fundraising, graphic design, newsletter support, reception team and more. Flexible Hours Contact: Shelsey Vega - svega@anselm.edu

Arbors of Bedford - Assist with activity groups and spend time with residents who are diagnosed with various stages of dementia. Flexible Hours Contact: Ann Manning - amanning776@anselm.edu; +B

Bartlett Elementary School - Assist in classroom activities, lead small groups, or tutor one-on-one. Help with reading & support kids w/ academic and/or social-emotional challenges M-F, 8:30am-2:45pm Contact: Grace Trites- gtrites880@Anselm.Edu or Kathleen Mullaney- kmullaney824@Anselm.Edu; +FB

Big Brother Big Sister - Mentors connect with a child younger than themselves. Be a good role model and help children with whatever they may need. This is a one hour a week, year-long commitment. Flexible Hours Contact: Jacob Yanski - jyanski@Anselm.Edu; +FB

Bridge Academy - Alternative High School/ Drop-Out Prevention for youth aged 15-18. M-Th. 9am-2pm Contact: Katherine Devine - kdevine063@Anselm.Edu; +FB

BRING IT - Support students 4th-12th grade from all different backgrounds and cultures. Over 20 languages are spoken at Bring It and volunteers have the opportunity to assist and participate in our Homework Help program, soccer, dance, or nursing program. T&W 5:30-8:30pm at Hillside Middle School, M&Th 5:30-8:30pm Parkside Middle School Contact: Juli Cole - jcole966@anselm.edu; +B

Child and Family Services – This organization has changed its name to “Waypoint”. Please see Waypoint below for more information regarding this community site.

Compassus Hospice and Palliative Care - Provide support to hospice patients through one-on-one interactions and group activities. Training and two year commitment required. Flexible Hours Contact: Ann Manning - amanning776@anselm.edu

Crotched Mountain - Assist students, aged 6-22 years old, who are coping with developmental and/or physical handicaps. Weekend visits and activities available. M-F, 8am-5pm; Sat/Sun open; Contact: Tyler Miranda-- tmiranda@Anselm.Edu +FB

Davison ESOL - Help Anselmians learn English through one-on-one mentoring here on campus. Hours TBD Contact: Meelia Center-- meeliacenter@anselm.edu

Dismas House - Assist formerly incarcerated women in a resident environment as they prepare to be reintroduced into society. Work with Dismas Home staff and residents to identify and create opportunities to foster success, dignity, and increased responsibility. Flexible Hours Contact: Meelia Center - meeliacenter@anselm.edu

Division of Children, Youth and Families - Students help run an Independent Living Skills group for teens aging out of the foster care system and help facilitate conversations about safety, budgeting, nutrition, health, educational support etc. Flexible Hours, group dependent Contact: Seana Grealey - sgrealey@anselm.edu

Easter Seals - Childcare center in Manchester for children 6 months to 12 years. The program targets children of low-income families. Volunteer opportunities include classroom aide, or Big Brother/Big Sister. M-F, 6:30am-12pm & 2-5:30pm Contact: McKenzie Schmidt – mschmidt469@anselm.edu

English for New Americans (ENA) - Help refugees and immigrants learn English & adapt to a new environment through ESOL classes and cultural activities. Volunteers serve as teacher’s aides or one-on-one mentors. Volunteers also take part in cultural activities. MTW 6pm-8:30pm Contact: Grace Trites- gtrites880@Anselm.Edu or Kathleen Mullaney- kmullaney824@Anselm.Edu

Families in Transition (FIT) - Family Place Resource Center and Emergency Family Shelter. Various programs to help end the cycle of homelessness include a reading program for children birth -5 in the shelter, play space activity leaders, share meal and activity at Family Resource center and support for chronically homeless men. Flexible days/ times. Contact: Jackson Lawler-Sidell - jlawlersidell930@anselm.edu; +B

Girls at Work - Mentor young girls with woodworking and building skills that empowers the girls to build confidence and overcome adversity. Volunteers will prepare building kits and be positive role models for the youth. Hours TBD Contact: Emma Hayes - emhayes@Anselm.edu

Girls Inc. - Inspiring all girls to be Strong, Smart and Bold! Girls Inc. is an after-school and dinner program that targets economically disadvantaged and/or at-risk girls aged 5-15. M-F 3:30pm-5:30pm Contact: Juli Cole - jcole966@anselm.edu

Hampshire House - Federal prison half-way house where volunteers teach computer lessons and provide support with job search and career exploration. Flexible Hours Contact: Connor Smith – csmith470@anselm.edu; +B

Head Start - Program for low-income children where volunteers serve as classroom aides, assisting the teachers in different activities, while establishing relationships with children ages 3-5. M-F, 8am –12pm, 2-5pm Contact: McKenzie Schmidt – mschmidt469@anselm.edu

Hillsborough County Nursing Home (HCNH) - Volunteers are matched up one-on-one with residents, visit patients, and organize group activities. Additional service opportunities are also available in the Alzheimer’s unit. Hours: M –Su, 9am-12pm, 2pm-5pm. 6pm-8pm on Memory Care Unit only Contact: Jessie Gendreau - jgendreau246@anselm.edu; +B

Hope for NH Recovery - Assist those seeking recovery from addiction. Activities include support with computers, hospitality and a listening ear. Flexible Hours Contact: Gisselle Howe - ghowe@anselm.edu

International Institute of NE, Manchester - Volunteers support the work of this refugee resettlement center assisting with English language classes, civics classes, and airport pickups. M-Th 9-11:00am, T 5:30-8:30pm, and F 9-11:30am Contact: Meelia Center- meeliacenter@anselm.edu; +B

Kids Café - Soup kitchen run by the Salvation Army for children in need. Volunteers tutor the children, help with homework, serve dinner, & participate in after dinner activities (sports, crafts, etc.). M–Th, 5-7pm Contact: Meagan Dubois - medubois@anselm.edu or Maia Nevens - mnevens@anselm.edu

Kids Café - Teen Night - Similar to Kids Café, but specifically for teens age 13-17. A meal is provided along with a safe place to participate in positive recreational activities including basketball and soccer. F/Sat 6 -10pm Contact: Meagan Dubois - medubois@anselm.edu or Maia Nevens - mnevens@anselm.edu

Kid's Café – Literacy – is perfect for education majors! The reading program pairs volunteers with Beech St School Elementary students in 2nd and 3rd grade for structured reading, phonics, and writing center. M–Th, 3-5pm Contact: Meagan Dubois - medubois@anselm.edu or Maia Nevens - mnevens@anselm.edu

Liberty House - Assist in the food pantry and clothing program and interact with veterans transitioning from homelessness. M–Sun, after 3pm Contact: Meelia Center- meeliacenter@anselm.edu;

Manchester Animal Shelter - Volunteers support the shelter in the following opportunities: dog care, cat care, general cleaning, fundraising, graphic design, newsletter support, reception team and more. M–F, 8am-7pm Contact: Gillian McDonald - gmcdonald@anselm.edu; +B

Manchester Police Athletic League - Recreational programs for at-risk youth including boxing, judo, weights/exercise, etc. Support also offered with homework help. M–Th 3-6pm Contact: Connor Smith – csmith470@anselm.edu

Manchester Schools - Elementary - Assist in classroom activities, story-time, art projects, etc., lead small groups, or tutor one-on-one. Help with reading/ mentoring & supporting kids w/ academic and/or social-emotional challenges. M–F 8:30am-2:30pm. Contact: Grace Trites- gtrites880@Anselm.Edu or Kathleen Mullaney- kmullaney824@Anselm.Edu; +FB

Manchester Schools - Middle/High - Assist in special education and ESOL classrooms w/ school students who need extra support, encouragement & attention. M–F 8:30am-2:30pm Grace Trites- gtrites880@Anselm.Edu or Kathleen Mullaney- kmullaney824@Anselm.Edu +FB

Moore Center - Agency serves young adults and adults with different abilities, or acquired brain injury. Volunteers assist in life skills classes, facilitate social interactions among client, and act as tutors. M–F 8:30am-4:30pm Contact: Tyler Miranda-- tmiranda@Anselm.Edu ; +B

My Turn - Help youth develop their skills, goals, and self-confidence through alternative education, post-secondary planning, career exploration, and employment training. Hours: M–Th 8:40am-9:30am and 10:30am-2:00pm Contact: Connor Smith – csmith470@anselm.edu; +FB

New Hampshire Hospital - NH Behavioral Health Hospital in Concord offers acute, inpatient psychiatric services for children, adults and elderly who need active treatment and other essential supports. Volunteer opportunities available for work with children and elderly. Contact: Briannah Phalon – bphalon612@anselm.edu; +B

New Horizons - Help with meal preparation, sorting and packing food, picking up donated food, and soup kitchen meal serving. M–F 9am-3pm Meal Serving 3:30-6pm Contact: Jackson Lawler-Sidell - jlawlersidell930@anselm.edu

ORIS - An ethnic community-based organization who mission aids in the resettlement of refugee and immigrant groups by providing assistance, training, resources, and opportunities that promote self-sufficiency. Volunteers will help with a variety of programs. TBD Contact: Meelia Center- meeliacenter@anselm.edu

Pine Haven - Residential program for abused & neglected boys age 6-12. Volunteers will work directly with the boys during or after school hours. M –F 8:30-2:30pm or late afternoon/early evenings Contact: Brenna Leach - bleach570@anselm.edu; +FB

Public Achievement - Assist students while they learn about democracy, citizenship and public work. Afterschool Contact: Emily Provencher- eprovencher@anselm.edu; +FB (site dependent)

Selma Deitch Early Learning Program: Developmental Preschool - Volunteers work w/ special education teachers in classrooms for 3-5 year olds who have autism, Down's syndrome & other developmental challenges. M–F, 9-11am & 12:30-3pm Contact: Danielle Whitman - dwhitman@anselm.edu; +FB

St Joseph's –Assist in programs for residents that occur daily. Recruit residents to attend, run programs, and create your own. Additional opportunities for 1:1 with residents. TBD Contact: Emma Hayes – ehayes@anselm.edu ; + B

Sununu YSC - Secure treatment facility for delinquent youth of New Hampshire. Volunteer opportunities include tutoring, mentoring, assisting in the on-site school, career coaching, etc. Flexible Hours Contact: Mikaela Weinstein – mweinstein072@anselm.edu ; +B

UpReach Therapeutic Riding Center - Horseback riding program dedicated to improving the physical, emotional & psychological development of challenged children & adults through progressive therapies centered on horseback riding. No horse experience required. M–F 8:30am–4:30pm (some evening hours may be available) Contact: Madi Jones - mjones@anselm.edu

VA Hospital - Work with the Chaplain in the Hospice Unit with terminally ill veterans. Flexible hours Contact: Emma Hayes- emhayes@anselm.edu

Waypoint (formerly Child and Family Services) - Volunteers work at the Street Outreach Program for homeless and runaway youth (ages 13-23). Help clients with homework, listen to their stories, assist clients with finding jobs, accessing food, clothes, laundry services, etc. Site interview required. Hours: M–F 10am-6pm Contact: Jackson Lawler-Sidell - jlawlersidell930@anselm.edu

YMCA START - A research-based after school program for at risk middle school students where volunteers help tutor and provide support in team building exercises. M–F 3:00-5:30pm Contact: Katherine Devine kdevine063@Anselm.Edu ; +B

YMCA STAY - Volunteers act as teachers' aides in a special life-skills class offered at Manchester middle and high schools. M–F 7:30am-2:30pm Contact: Katherine Devine kdevine063@Anselm.Edu

YMCA STRIVE Program - Volunteers work with middle and high school students who have been suspended or expelled from school. Provide educational support and informal mentoring. M–F 9:30am-1:30pm Contact: Katherine Devine kdevine063@Anselm.Edu ; +B

YMCA Teen Center - Assist in an after school program for Manchester youth. Volunteers help with homework, as well as mentor and spend time with teenagers. M–F 2:00pm-6:00pm Contact: Katherine Devine kdevine063@Anselm.Edu ; +B

Reach at YWCA - Train and Volunteer as a Crisis Line advocate against sexual/domestic violence. Provide support via phone and emergency room calls. Requires 36 hours of training and 2 semester commitment, and two 12 hr. on-call shifts per month. Two 12 hr. on-call shifts per month Contact: Abby Roden - aroden@anselm.edu, Meagan Savage msavage740@Anselm.Edu +B