A SURVEY OF NEW HAMPSHIRE VOTER ATTITUDES
FEBRUARY 21 – 23, 2018

Neil Levesque
Executive Director, New Hampshire Institute of Politics

Faculty Advisor:
Tauna Sisco, PhD
Chair, Department of Sociology

OVERVIEW:

These results are from the inaugural Saint Anselm College Survey Center poll based on interviews with 428 randomly-selected registered voters in the state of New Hampshire. Interviews were conducted by landline and cellular phone between February 21st and February 23rd. The overall survey has a margin of sampling error of 4.7% with a confidence interval of 95%; the margin of sampling error on questions specific to the congressional districts is 6.7% for District 1 and 6.7% for District 2.

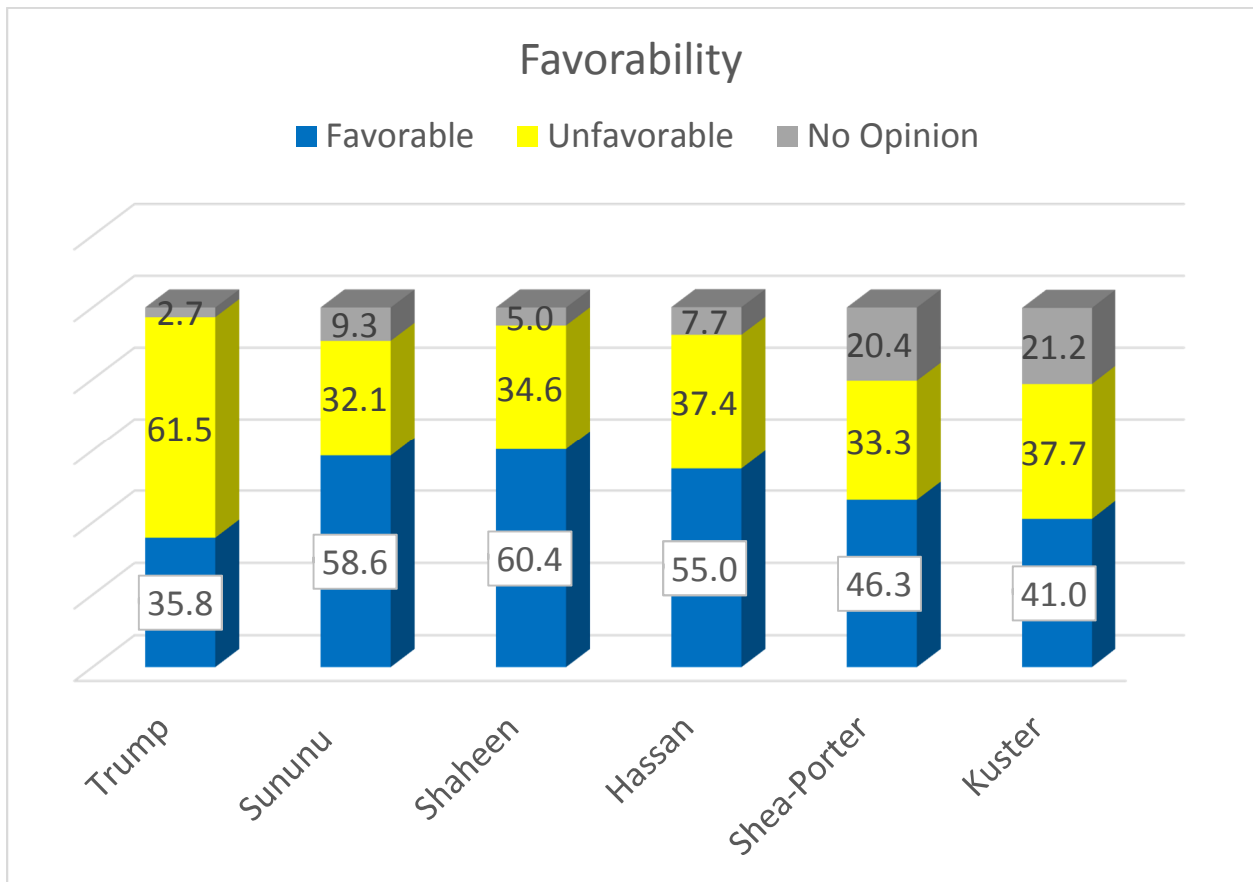

New Hampshire Institute of Politics Executive Director Neil Levesque summarized the results, saying, "This poll really shows a clear difference between the two major parties: the Democrats have very high partisan intensity on questions related to President Trump, the direction of the country, and this fall's Congressional elections. By contrast, Republicans are more fractured: 23% have an unfavorable view of Trump, 21% believe the country is on the wrong track, and only 82% would vote for a Republican congressional candidate today. The one bright spot for Republicans is Governor Chris Sununu, who despite the polarized environment carries a 59% favorability rating among all voters. Senators Shaheen and Hassan are also well-liked by voters, with 60% and 55% favorability respectively."
