

Enrolling in Native Speaker sessions

Students must enroll in Native Speaker sessions (NS) online during registration at the same time they enroll in the Modern Language course. Students who enroll in multiple language courses must enroll in one Native Speaker session for each language course they are taking (see bullet c) under assistance). Each NS sessions should be with different Native Speakers.

Do not enroll in NS sessions unless you are taking a Modern Language course in the semester. If you are interested in attending a NS Sessions only (auditing NS) see below under Assistance d) Audit Students.

Native Speaker Session: Enrolling in the correct language and level for your language course

The Native Speaker session course number is a seven letter-digit code combination with no spaces. "NS" indicates Native Speaker program, followed by two letters for language (CN, FR, GR, RU or SP), followed by three digits for the language level of course/NS session (100, 150, 200, 250 and 300*, ). Your language course and your Native Speaker session must be in the same language and level. For example if your language course is FR 100 C, French I, your Native Speaker has to be any NSFR100 session that works with your schedule.

*Advanced level Native Speaker sessions – for all advanced courses numbered 300 and higher

NSCN300, NSFR300, NSGR300, NSRU300, and NSSP300: advanced level Native Speaker sessions for students in all advanced level courses numbered 300 or higher of the respective language, for example if your advanced Spanish course is Adv. Spanish Conversation SP 353, you enroll into any NSSP300 session that works with your schedule.

* There is no Native Speaker requirement for the following courses: RU 129 (taught in English) and The following two-credit courses: SP 310, SP 326 and SP 327.

Assistance

- a) If you are unable to enroll in any of the offered Native Speaker Sessions: Please enroll in the language course and contact Ms. Michaela Olsen molsen@anselm.edu, Language Resource Center (LRC), 4th floor Alumni at the beginning of the semester. Ms. Olsen will find or create as needed sessions that work with the academic schedule of those students.
- b) If you experience technical difficulties when enrolling in a language course: Please ask the Registrar's Office for assistance.
- c) If you enrolled in multiple courses of the same language, please enroll in the first NS session and ask the Registrar's office to register you in the other NS session(s) since the system will not allow you to enroll yourself in multiple NS session of the same language.
- d) Audit students (who are not enrolling in the language course) please see Ms. Olsen to enroll:
Fall semester NS auditors enroll when drop/add is closed beginning of the Fall semester;
Spring semester NS auditors enroll when drop/add is closed beginning of the Spring semester.
