

2013 - 2014 Honor Roll of Donors

SAINT
ANSELM
COLLEGE

1889

It is true, that while not the day-to-day items, the essence of our work today is the same as those original few men of 125 years ago. Within the faith upon which this institution rests, we are to promote understanding and knowledge, not just with those of the same faith, but with all who come here. We invite all to examine and explore all that our faith teaches so that they may come to their own beliefs about the world, both this world and the world hereafter.

Abbot Mark A. Cooper, O.S.B, '71, H.D. '04
speaking at a ceremony to commemorate the 125th anniversary of the founding of the college

GREETINGS FROM PRESIDENT STEVEN R. DISALVO, Ph.D.

DEAR ALUMNI, FRIENDS AND PARENTS,

This honor roll represents a collective triumph, not just of our benefactors, but also of our students, professors, monks, administrators and staff who have inspired their generosity. Our gratitude goes out to all who sustain the Saint Anselm College community.

We have eight million reasons to be grateful—in the past year, donors like you gave $8 million to the college. This is an increase of 43 percent from last year.

Because of your gifts, Saint Anselm College achieved the second highest total fundraising year in its 125-year history.

Thanks to you, The Saint Anselm Fund itself had a record-breaking year—its second in a row!—and raised $3.7 million during fiscal year 2014, which is a 12 percent increase over last year.

The Class of 2014 senior gift participation rate was an impressive 51 percent. Overall alumni participation grew 1 percentage point to 21.6 percent, and the reunion participation rate grew 6 percentage points to 26 percent. This success was made possible by our wonderful volunteers, who led by example by giving and asking others to give too.

The pages of this honor roll are much more than a listing of names—they are a tribute to the incredible faith and love that bind our Anselmian community together and propel us forward. Your support is just as essential to the prosperity and vitality of the college as the prayers of the monastic community, the leadership of our nine past presidents, and the dedication of our faculty and staff to educate young men and women of faith.

Thank you for helping the college build a sound financial foundation as we increase our capability for the continued growth and enhancement of Saint Anselm College.

On behalf of the Saint Anselm students and faculty who are the beneficiaries of your philanthropic vision and investment, I extend my deepest appreciation.

May God bless you and continue to guide our college into a vibrant future.

Sincerely,

Steven R. DiSalvo, Ph.D.
President

P.S. I am pleased to note the many donors who have maintained their charter membership in the Bob Collins Society by continuing to give for a second fiscal year. Our most loyal donors are identified by stars next to their names in the honor roll. Donors who follow Bob's example and continue to give each year will remain members of the society and receive the college's annual calendar. For more information, visit www.anselm.edu/bob-collins.

Values Gratitude Relationships

MICHAEL R. SIDDALL - ANSELMIAN SINCE 1980

Why I give:

"I'm very grateful."

For Michael Siddall '84, the Anselmian experience is all about the people. "Certainly I received a good education. But I'm most grateful for the relationships, to this day, with friends and acquaintances, and the monks and professors..." He trails off, trying to think of a way to express that unique Anselmian quality without resorting to a cliché. "It's just authentic. You meet people that are really nice, kind people. It's a very special thing."

Mike served as vice president of the Alumni Association and participates regularly in the Greater Springfield (Mass.) Anselmian alumni group. "I've developed great friendships with people who are connected to Saint Anselm. Not just alumni, but also parents and other people in the community who share common interests."

These relationships have impacted Mike both personally and professionally. After college, each of his jobs had some Anselmian connection. A few years after graduation, Mike even worked at Saint Anselm as the alumni director, before leaving to pursue law school.

Now running his own law firm, Mike notes that his undergraduate degree prepared him well for law school. "There were professors who talked about my writing skills and how they could tell I had a good background. Lawyers are constantly drafting, so writing is part of my daily routine."

At Saint Anselm, Mike also learned important core values, especially open-mindedness. "Over time, I have come to realize the importance of diversity of thought. Saint Anselm allowed me to be open to diversity of thought. Maybe it comes from the Benedictine values, or maybe from being around good people. Perhaps each supports the other. The bottom line is, I'm grateful for learning to think in a diverse way."

Gratitude comes up again when Mike explains why he gives. For him, it's simple: "I think what it gets down to for me is gratitude. That's it. I'm very grateful."

1889 SOCIETY

The 1889 Society celebrates those generous and insightful donors who secure the future of Saint Anselm College through a bequest or life-income gift. We are pleased to recognize the people who are planning today for gifts that will provide significant benefits to the college in the future. Because of the generosity of the members of the 1889 Society, Saint Anselm will continue to launch successful generations of Anselmians today and tomorrow.

Learning Support Dedication

MICHELE PESULA KUEGLER - ANSELMIAN SINCE 1988

Why I give:

"I give to help the students."

Michele Pesula Kuegler '92 has forged her way along an unusual career path, transitioning from elementary school teacher to startup entrepreneur. The skills that she learned at Saint Anselm College empowered her to succeed, and now her giving helps a new generation access an Anselmian education.

Michele is CEO and editor-in-chief of PeKu Publications, a group of online publications that she founded in 2008. Her writing skills were a key asset as she started in this field: "I'm a writer and an editor, and I definitely credit that to Saint Anselm. Having a high bar set—'you will be a great writer'—helped me become who I am." These days, Michele has a staff of writers and editors, and she focuses on the big picture, using her organizational and interpersonal skills to oversee an expanding media network.

As for what motivates her to give? "I understand that education is a pricy endeavor. The education here is valuable, well worth the investment. If my giving helps make it attainable for someone who might not be able to go—that is why I keep giving." As a member of the Corporate Partners Program, Michele makes gifts that go directly to scholarship aid.

Michele says, "Students here learn to aim for higher goals." She has seen this in the Saint Anselm students whom she has hired as interns each year since 2010. "I have had fabulous, dedicated interns. I expect great results, and I get great results." Now a mentor herself, Michele recalls experiences from her own student days. "Professors coached students the way I coach my interns. They always made time for students. The way I was educated, that is the same style I use now in coaching others."

For more information about supporting the college through the Corporate Partners Program, as Michele does, please contact John Gennetti, assistant vice president for individual gifts, at 603-641-7210 or jgennetti@anselm.edu.

OUR MONASTIC COMMUNITY

The Catholic, Benedictine tradition of community engagement and service is one of the foundations of campus life at Saint Anselm College. There are twenty-eight members of the Order of Saint Benedict of New Hampshire, most of whom live in community at Saint Anselm Abbey. As residents of the campus community, the monks serve in multiple roles at the college.

We are deeply thankful for the ongoing generosity of our monastic community. Each one has chosen to give both of his time and talent to this institution, helping to foster the sense of community, caring and spirituality known to be the hallmarks of Saint Anselm College.

ALUMNI

Saint Anselm College is proud to have active and dedicated alumni. Recognizing the value of their own Saint Anselm experiences, alumni give to support and enhance the college for present and future generations. We sincerely appreciate each gift and thank every one of our alumni for their gracious support this year.

Legacy Friends Appreciation

DAVID BROSAN - ANSELMIAN SINCE 1990

Why I give:

“I want to give back to a community that opened a world of opportunity for me.”

In his work, David Brosnan '94 spends a lot of time thinking about philanthropy. “We track statistics of why people give. I think my reasons are the same as many Americans: wanting to give back to a cause that’s important to me.”

David gives to The Saint Anselm Fund, allowing the college to spend the money where it will have the greatest impact. “I still have a very close affinity to the college and appreciate what Saint Anselm did for me. I want to help in any way I can. One way is to provide financial support so Saint Anselm can continue to do for others what it did for me.”

David’s relationship with Saint Anselm started as a child, visiting campus with his father, Jack, a 1956 alumnus. Years later, “after looking at many schools, it hit me that the school I had been introduced to as a boy—that was the place I needed to be. When I told my dad, his eyes lit up. I knew how proud he was of Saint Anselm.”

Now David shares that alumni pride. “My best friends in the world are friends from Saint Anselm. Beyond that, what has stayed with me is an appreciation for how my education helped me learn to think and write critically and analytically. I use those skills every day in my current work.”

For almost a decade, David has worked at Fidelity Charitable, a donor-advised fund to assist clients with charitable giving. David explains, “We try to help people do well by giving wisely.” It is important to David that his work focuses on doing good, helping both his clients and the charities that they support. He adds, “I think those values were instilled in me at Saint Anselm, where the education is not only a liberal arts education, but also in the Catholic tradition.”

For more information about how you can strengthen the future of Saint Anselm College through a gift to The Saint Anselm Fund—Impact Now, please contact

Kristen MacNeil '12, director for annual giving, at

PATRICIA SHUSTER - ANSELMIAN SINCE 1994

Vice President for Human Resources and Administration

Why I give:

“To support this values-based community and the work of my colleagues.”

Patricia Shuster recalls the day, several years ago, that she admired the beautiful irises on a coworker's desk. “She offered me some, and I planted them in my garden. All of the irises in my garden today came from those Saint Anselm irises.” Pat, in turn, shared the irises after they thrived in her own garden, giving some to a faculty colleague staying at Saint Anselm College's Hundred Acres Retreat Center. He planted them on the grounds there, where visitors can enjoy them to this day. This small story is a perfect illustration of the Anselmian community. People who come here—whether students, family members, faculty or staff—are welcomed and nurtured, and they, in turn, give back to the community and help it thrive.

Pat joined the Saint Anselm community in 1994 as human resources director. She was interested in working at a values-based institution, and Saint Anselm exceeded her expectations. “It really is a special place. You come here and you feel it. Everything that we do is tied to the mission. You see it in how we treat people and what matters to us.” Today, as vice president for human resources and administration, Pat oversees departments that provide core services to the entire college community, ranging from information technology to safety and security to communications and marketing.

In addition to the dedication that Pat brings to the job every day, she has supported the college as a loyal donor since 1995. “It's about the value of the education and the work we're doing here. I know it's important. Our students are fabulous. I see the commitment of the faculty and all the staff. They are devoted. My giving back supports the work of my colleagues.”

For more information about supporting Saint Anselm College with recurring gift installments, as Pat does, please contact

Loyalty Education Gratitude

PAUL J. MCNEIL, D.D.S. - ANSELMIAN SINCE 1942

Why I give:

“Saint Anselm was so good to me,
I wanted to repay them.”

Dr. Paul McNeil '46 first got to know Saint Anselm College as a high school student visiting the Hilltop to see the Saint Anselm football games. His older brother, John, was on the team having received a football scholarship. John graduated from Saint Anselm in 1942, the same year Paul graduated from high school. Paul wanted to attend Saint Anselm but doubted he could afford the full tuition.

That summer, John reached out to the college treasurer, Father John Lynch, O.S.B. Fr. John invited Paul to meet with him and asked, “How much could you afford?” Paul told Fr. John what he had saved from his summer job—and Fr. John told him he could attend for that amount.

Paul matriculated in October 1942. With World War II underway, Army Air Corps cadets came to Saint Anselm to receive training. As military personnel filled the campus, the few civilian students like Paul were hired to wait tables in return for tuition remission.

In 1943, Paul was accepted to the University of Pennsylvania dental school, where his brother John was also a student. However, Paul was lacking one science course that he needed in order to enter dental school in the fall of 1944. Again, Fr. John offered a solution. At his suggestion, Father George Jacobson, O.S.B., agreed to teach a course for Paul and one other student.

Paul graduated from dental school in 1948 and went on to serve three years as a Navy dentist before starting his dental practice. He has never forgotten how the monks of Saint Anselm helped him. He says, “Because of everything Saint Anselm did for us, when my brother and I started our practices, we wanted to give something back. In the first years, it was just a small amount, but we sent whatever we could.”

For more than ten years, Paul and his wife, Maureen, have funded the Dr. and Mrs. Paul McNeil Annual Scholarship. Now Paul continues the monks' legacy by supporting a new generation of Anselmians, just as he was helped all those years ago.

Comfort Learning Friends

CASEY L. RYAN - ANSELMIAN SINCE 2004

Why I give:

"I give because I love Saint Anselm so much."

Growing up in upstate New York, Casey Ryan '08 came to Saint Anselm on a whim, using an application waiver from her guidance counselor to secure her eventual acceptance and presidential scholarship.

Great food and great friends top Casey's list as she reflects on all that Saint Anselm offered her. When she visits nowadays, the staff tries to find the time to whip up her custom calzone—just cheese and buffalo sauce. More seriously, Casey acknowledges that academic rigor made Saint Anselm the right match for her. She majored in psychology and was a member of the honors program.

As an adjunct professor of criminal justice, Casey models her teaching style on the inspiring courses she took with Professors Brady and Finn in the psychology department and Professor Humphrey in the criminal justice department. "They helped transition my love of learning into a love of teaching. Currently I am pursuing a Ph.D. in sociology at UMass Boston and would love to eventually teach full time."

"I give because I hope someone else will have the same experiences that I enjoyed and loved so much," adds Casey. As a senior, Casey worked for ABC News during the presidential debate on campus, and participated in volunteer opportunities through the Meelia Center during her four years on the Hilltop. "Now, I give so that others may have the opportunities for success that Saint Anselm gave me."

For more information about supporting Anselmian Academics and Anselmian Life, as Casey does, please contact

Teaching Dedication Community

PAUL E. FINN, PH.D. - ANSELMIAN SINCE 1969

Why I give:

"I give to create opportunities that would not exist otherwise for students."

"The nuns at Saint Anselm made the most delicious pastries," recalls Professor Paul Finn '73 of his first impression of the college as a second grader. "My father delivered bread to the college and brought the pastries home—the flavor of the college was wonderful. As I got older, the college remained in my life because I listened to the Saints basketball games on the radio."

"When I attended my first psychology classes at Saint Anselm, Professors Dick Hechtl and Joe MacDonald got me excited by their passion for ideas and teaching. While learning about Plato's Allegory of the Cave, I happily realized that I would not have to deliver bread for a living. Instead, I could be part of the joy of education. After I earned my Ph.D., my goal in life became to never have to go to work, but instead to go to places I enjoy, like teaching and mentoring my students here at Saint Anselm."

As a psychologist, professor and cross-country coach, Paul admits he loves taking people beyond what they think they can do. He explains why: "At the end of the day, our lives are about meaning and substance. Our Anselmian community lives up to these ideals; it is comprised of intelligent, educated and well-meaning people who gladly accept their responsibility to help others. I give my money to the college because the Saint Anselm experience does so well at encouraging our students along their journeys toward this goal."

MOUNT SAINT MARY COLLEGE ENDOWED SCHOLARSHIP FUND

Alumnae of Mount Saint Mary College were welcomed into the Saint Anselm College Alumni Association as associate members in 2007, and in 2012 they established an endowed scholarship fund at Saint Anselm College. The Mount Saint Mary College Endowed Scholarship Fund honors and commemorates the Mount as well as its historical association with Saint Anselm. Once fully funded, it will create a permanent scholarship for a female student with financial need, academic aptitude, leadership potential and, in honor of founder Catherine McAuley, experience serving those in need.

Saint Anselm College is pleased to thank Mount Saint Mary College alumnae (MSM) and friends for supporting this scholarship.

CROSS INSURANCE - ANSELMIAN SINCE 1980

Why we give:

"We want to better our community and be part of the development of New Hampshire's future."

Cross Insurance is committed to serving both its clients and their communities. Chris Sharpe, president of New Hampshire operations, recalls how those principles were shared with him. "When I was hired, Royce Cross, the president and CEO, made it clear to me that being an active participant in the community was just as important as managing the business."

Since joining Cross four years ago, Chris has worked to expand the existing partnership between the company and Saint Anselm College. As a member of the college's Corporate Partners Program, Cross supports two annual scholarships that provide assistance to talented students with financial need. Each year, Chris has the opportunity to meet the students supported by Cross. He says, "It's exciting and interesting to hear about what they've been studying and what their plans are for the future."

Scholarship aid is one way that the company practices corporate good citizenship. By investing in today's students, Cross is helping to develop the skilled workforce and ethical leaders of tomorrow. In addition, Cross is a sponsor of the semiannual Corporate Partners CEO Breakfast Series, which brings together local and national business leaders to network and share ideas. Cross not only helps support this event but also benefits from it. Chris says, "I find the events to be very informative. I have been impressed with the level of expertise of the keynote speakers."

Chris believes that Saint Anselm College is a great match for Cross. "We are proud to be partnered with Saint Anselm. There are a lot of similarities between our organizations—the concepts of leadership, high standards, and a shared ethical approach to business and education." He adds, "What sets Saint Anselm apart is providing value in so many areas. There is a strong basis in theology and Catholicism, and an emphasis on rounding out students with excellent programs in the academic, athletic, social and political arenas as well. Having such diverse strengths is pretty amazing and uncommon."

FACULTY AND STAFF

Each member of the Saint Anselm College faculty and staff is a valued member of our community, and we would like to thank all employees for their dedication and professionalism. We are especially grateful to those who, above and beyond the skills and talents they bring to work, supported the college through their generous donations this year.

Service Faith

THE THOMAS A. MELUCCI JR. MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

Why we give:

“We want to pay it forward, to help future students as we were helped.”

Last spring, two Saint Anselm juniors received a mysterious email inviting them to a meeting in the Coffee Shop. Riley Duggan '15 and David Oslin '15 were shocked when Father John Fortin, O.S.B., '71 told them that they each had been selected to receive the Thomas A. Melucci Jr. Memorial Scholarship. They learned for the first time that Melucci scholars are nominated by friends, teachers and staff members without the students' knowledge.

Riley and David, both active in Campus Ministry and volunteer work, have demonstrated their dedication to faith and service, making them ideal candidates for the Melucci scholarship. This endowed scholarship was established by Thomas and Gail Melucci as a memorial honoring their son, Thomas Jr., “Tommy,” a member of the Class of 1988. As Anselmian parents, they celebrate Tommy's love of life and learning by providing full-tuition scholarships to seniors who have demonstrated spiritual and personal growth. Thomas and Gail remain closely involved with the scholarship, serving on the committee that selects recipients each year. In recognition of his meaningful contributions to the college, Thomas Melucci Sr. received an honorary degree in 1998, and he has served as a college trustee since 2002. In this leadership role, he helps to advance the college using the knowledge and expertise that propelled him to success in the business world.

“We are all responsible to give back to the school that has given us so much.”

Transformation

This year marks the 25th anniversary of the first Melucci scholarship award to Edward McElaney Jr. '90. “Fr. John called me about a month before school started. It was quite an honor because I actually knew Tommy. He was one of those special guys who always put a smile on your face. He would light up a room.” Ed adds that the full-tuition scholarship made a big difference for him and his family. These days, working as a sales executive, Ed is in a position to pay it forward as a donor to the Melucci scholarship fund.

Each year, the Melucci scholarship continues to transform the lives of its recipients. Alex Bazarian '08 says, “After receiving the Melucci scholarship, I felt as though the world had been opened up. The inspiring example of this family who were supporting my education, without even meeting me, made me want to do the same for others. Coupled with my growing desire for community service, I saw my world in a new light.”

Today, Alex is a living testament to the values he learned at Saint Anselm. He works as a teacher at Nativity School of Worcester, a Jesuit middle school that provides an all-scholarship education to underserved boys of all faiths. He reflects, “The Melucci scholarship helped me to better understand the ways other people can impact our lives. After becoming a recipient of the award, I learned I wasn’t just living my own story but am a small piece of a much bigger one.”

Similarly, Caitlin (Lenehan) Balint '04, now a registered nurse working at Danbury Hospital, credits Saint Anselm with instilling in her “a sense of service and responsibility.” Thinking back on her volunteer work with Campus Ministry, she says, “We were helping others, but I think they were also helping us and shaping our lives in ways they’ll never know. In a similar way, the Melucci family is helping others and changing our lives in ways that will last long beyond graduation.”

Caitlin and Alex both have been motivated to become donors to Saint Anselm. Caitlin says, “We are all responsible to give back to the school that has given us so much. Even small donations add up and can make a big difference.” Alex adds, “Giving back to my second home is an easy decision to help others realize this Anselmian way of life.”

WAYS OF GIVING

WAYS YOU CAN HELP SAINT ANSELM COLLEGE

Much has been accomplished, but there is still so much more to achieve. Your ongoing help is needed for Saint Anselm College to remain a competitive, relevant and accessible option for the rising generation. Here are ways that you may give to the area of the college that is most important to you.

OUTRIGHT GIFTS

Cash

Gifts of cash make funds available for immediate use by Saint Anselm and are fully tax deductible for donors who itemize deductions. Checks should be made payable to Saint Anselm College. The college also accepts payments by American Express, MasterCard and Visa. You can give by mail, telephone or online via the college's website at www.anselm.edu/giving.

Securities and Mutual Fund Shares

Gifts of long-term appreciated securities and mutual fund shares offer the benefits of deducting the gift (at fair market value) on the date of transfer to Saint Anselm. In addition, donors are not required to pay capital gains tax on the appreciation of the stock.

Matching Gifts

Many businesses and corporations match their employees' gifts to educational institutions. Please ask your human resources department whether your company offers such a program. You may also search our matching gift directory at www.anselm.edu/matchinggift.

Pledges

Pledges allow you to make a commitment to the college to be paid over a period of time. Installments are based on an agreed-upon schedule of payments and may be made by any of the above methods.

PLANNED GIFTS

Bequests

A bequest is gift made through your will or trust. You can give cash, personal property, real estate, securities, insurance policies or retirement plan assets. We can help draft bequest language and provide information about how a bequest can reduce your estate taxes. Benefactors who include Saint Anselm in their wills or trusts are welcomed into the 1889 Society.

Charitable Remainder Trusts

An annuity or unitrust can be established by transferring cash or appreciated property (stock or real estate) to Saint Anselm College. The college, as trustee, manages the trust for you or your appointed beneficiaries. You receive an annual income of at least five percent from the trust for the remainder of your life or your beneficiaries' lifetimes, or for a term of years. You also receive a charitable deduction for your gift, and, if appreciated property is used to fund the trust, you avoid capital gains tax on the sale of the asset.

Charitable Gift Annuity

This form of giving allows you to transfer cash or securities to the college in return for an annuity that pays you or your appointed beneficiary a fixed income for life. The charitable deduction depends on the age of your income beneficiaries, the annuity rate of yield and the amount of your gift. Saint Anselm pays charitable gift annuity income quarterly.

Charitable Lead Trusts

For donors with substantial assets whose estates, under current tax law, will be taxed at a higher rate, a lead trust can be mutually beneficial. It offers a way to make a significant gift to Saint Anselm without depriving heirs.

Real Estate

You may make a gift of real estate to the college or transfer the property into a charitable trust. You may also contribute real estate to the college while reserving the right to occupy the property. Each plan has its own unique tax and income benefits.

Personal Property

A gift of capital assets (such as antiques, art, equipment, rare objects, etc.) can sometimes be given for educational purposes for the immediate benefit of the college. In order to ensure full deductibility, such gifts must possess a “related use” for the college.

MONTHLY GIVING/PLEDGES

Through our monthly giving program you can divide your total gift into manageable monthly installments. For example, a gift of $100 can be divided into monthly payments of only $8.34. Or, for $83.34 per month you can provide $1,000 in support annually and qualify for membership in the President’s Society. Please contact Kristen MacNeil ’12, director for annual giving, at 603-641-7196 or kmacneil@anselm.edu to set up a monthly giving payment that works for you.

THE SAINT ANSELM FUND – IMPACT NOW

As every Anselmian and friend of Saint Anselm has individual experiences and unique interests, we are offering the opportunity to designate your annual gift to the area of Saint Anselm College that is most important to you.

Anselmian Scholarships

Your gift directly funds the education of our Anselmians. Support for this critical priority enhances our scholarship packages and helps ensure that students who are qualified to attend Saint Anselm are able to do so regardless of their financial means.

Anselmian Support

Your gift impacts areas with the highest level of need; gifts go where they will have the greatest benefit.

Anselmian Academics

Your gift allows us to attract highly qualified faculty, provide the latest technology and equipment, host conferences, bring in outstanding speakers and improve the educational experience for our students.

Anselmian Life

Your gift enriches, strengthens and helps create the programs that make Saint Anselm so rewarding for our students. It immediately impacts student-focused programs such as the Meelia Center for Community Engagement, Campus Ministry, Career Services and Student Activities.

Anselmian Athletics

Athletic programs require excellent facilities, up-to-date equipment, talented coaches and resources for travel and recruitment. Your gift helps ensure that every Hawk team is fully equipped, well-prepared and competitive.

BOB COLLINS SOCIETY

In 2013, Saint Anselm College created a new giving society to recognize our most loyal donors. The society is named after the late Bob Collins '37, who started giving to his alma mater as soon as he graduated. After he made his first modest donation, he followed it with a gift every year... for 74 years.

Consistent giving has a powerful impact on Saint Anselm College. In addition to demonstrating loyalty, a high giving rate among our alumni helps the college attract grants, rise in national rankings, and inspire other alumni, as well as parents and friends, to give.

Benefactors maintain their membership by following Bob Collins' example of continuing to give every year.

You will be recognized—as Bob is—as one of our most loyal donors.

To learn more about Bob Collins, his legacy, and the society, visit www.anselm.edu/bob-collins.

PRESIDENT'S SOCIETY

Founded in 1992, the President's Society recognizes the college's most generous donors, whose leadership giving reflects an extraordinary commitment to the students and faculty of Saint Anselm College. Since its inception, membership in the President's Society has almost tripled.

Membership in the President's Society is obtained by making an annual contribution of $1,000 or more. Donors from the 10 youngest alumni classes who contribute $500 or more are Associate Members of the President's Society.

By joining the President's Society, alumni, parents and friends help the college fulfill its promise to develop students as critical thinkers, principled leaders and ethical decision makers. In addition to being recognized in this, the college's Honor Roll of Donors, President's Society members enjoy professional networking opportunities and other events hosted by the president of the college.

1889 SOCIETY

The 1889 Society celebrates those generous and insightful donors who have chosen to leave gifts to the college through estate planning.

Planned and estate gifts help the college plan for future programs and help students afford tuition. They also provide you with an opportunity to make a statement of priority with your estate plans. Planned and estate gifts allow the college to prepare for growth of strategic initiatives and help our donors save on taxes.

Walter Gallo '58, a proud Golden Anselmian and former administrator of the college, is the founding president of the 1889 Society.
