GREETINGS FROM PRESIDENT STEVEN R. DISALVO, Ph. D.

DEAR ALUMNI, FRIENDS AND PARENTS,

The generosity of thousands of Anselmians is honored in this publication. In my first few months here at Saint Anselm, I have had the privilege of meeting only a small number of you, but those whom I have come to know have quickly helped me to perceive just what makes Saint Anselm College and its people so special. The record-breaking accomplishments detailed in the pages ahead certainly confirm that perception.

This past year Saint Anselm College raised $5.6 million. It did so by increasing the number of donors, the number of gifts, and the rate of alumni participation. The Saint Anselm Fund surpassed $3 million for the first time in the college's 124-year history. The $3.3 million raised during fiscal year 2013 represents a 23 percent increase over the previous year. The new Impact Now initiative resulted in increased gifts for multi-year annual commitments. In conjunction with the college's newest giving society, the Bob Collins Society, alumni participation grew 2.25 percentage points to 21.25 percent and young alumni participation grew 5 percent to 17.45 percent.

On behalf of my predecessor and on behalf of the Saint Anselm students who are the beneficiaries of your generosity, I extend my greatest gratitude.

To a new president these fundraising successes speak a powerful message. First, and most importantly, they represent the faith and love of Anselmians near and far who cherish the mission of Saint Anselm College. Behind each one of the gifts that comprise these numbers is a decision made by an individual or family whose lives have been so affected by Saint Anselm that they are committed to helping to make that impact possible for young people they will likely never meet. I assure you that your dedication and trust are well placed.

The success reported here also represents to me a foundation upon which Saint Anselm can and must build. I look forward to meeting all of you whose generosity fills these pages, and I will be inviting and encouraging you to join with me in sustaining and increasing our shared commitment to lift Saint Anselm College into the future.

May God bless our college.

Sincerely,

Steven R. DiSalvo, Ph.D.
President

P.S. I am pleased to recognize every donor listed in this honor roll as a charter member of the Bob Collins Society, named after a beloved alumnus, instructor and senior administrator who exemplified loyalty to the college. After graduating in 1937, Bob made a gift every year—for the next 74 years. You may remain a member and receive the college's annual calendar by following Bob's example and continuing to give every year going forward. For more info, visit www.anselm.edu/bob-collins.

A FAMILY TRADITION— EDWARD J. CANTLIN JR. '62

I AM MOST THANKFUL TO SAINT ANSELM COLLEGE FOR: MANY THINGS, INCLUDING A GREAT EDUCATION AND LIFELONG FRIENDSHIPS WITH THE MONASTIC COMMUNITY AND FELLOW ALUMNI.

- Ed was a commercial bank officer in NYC, “the greatest city in the world!”
- Saint Anselm gets in your blood. Ed’s love for Saint Anselm was instilled in him by his father.
- Moving close to Saint Anselm, being near the monks and dear friends, plus returning to be part of the campus community made it easy for Ed and his wife, Michele, to leave Manhattan.

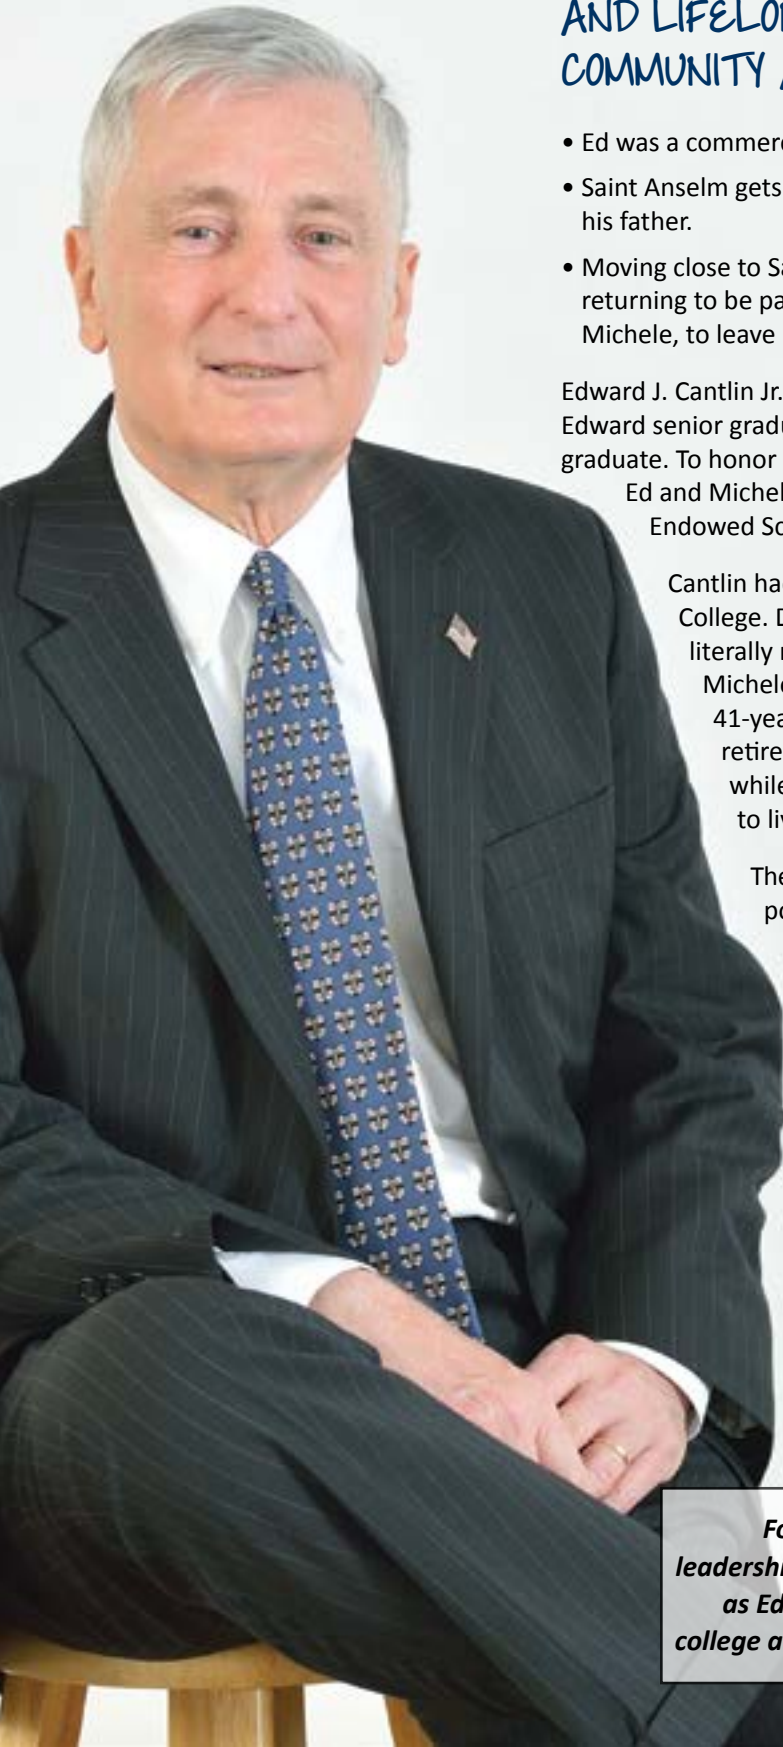

Edward J. Cantlin Jr. followed in his father’s footsteps to Saint Anselm College. Edward senior graduated from Saint Anselm in 1924; Edward junior is a 1962 graduate. To honor his parents and to give back to his and his father’s alma mater, Ed and Michele established the Edward J. and Kathryn R. Cantlin Memorial Endowed Scholarship Fund.

Cantlin had a wonderful experience as an undergraduate at Saint Anselm College. During his day, he was one of approximately 700 students. He literally made many lifelong friends here. It is why he and his wife, Michele, chose to live in nearby Bedford after he retired from his 41-year banking career in Manhattan. After discussing their retirement plans, Ed and Michele realized they were always happiest while at Saint Anselm College. In 2006, they left the city and moved to live in New Hampshire and be near the college.

The Cantlins attend and have supported many social, cultural, political and athletic events at the college. They are proud of introducing Saint Anselm College to the Benedictine School in Maryland fourteen years ago. Since then, approximately a dozen Saint Anselm students spend spring break each year at the school helping children with disabilities.

“It’s important to look at the school’s mission statement,” Cantlin explained, “and apply it to the society we live in: ‘A learning community that encourages the lifelong pursuit of the truth and fosters intellectual, moral and spiritual growth.’ Community is a word you hear a lot at Saint Anselm. I am proud of how the school has grown and changed since I was a student, but its mission has not changed. The Benedictine monks are the heart and soul of the institution. That’s what has drawn us back to the college. The Saint Anselm community stands for what is really good in the world: Catholic education is our last, best hope.”

For more information about supporting the college at a leadership level and becoming a member of the President’s Society, as Ed and Michele Cantlin are, please contact Jim Flanagan, college advancement office, 603-641-7221, jflanagan@anselm.edu.

A GUIDING LIGHT— FR. PETER GUERIN, O.S.B.

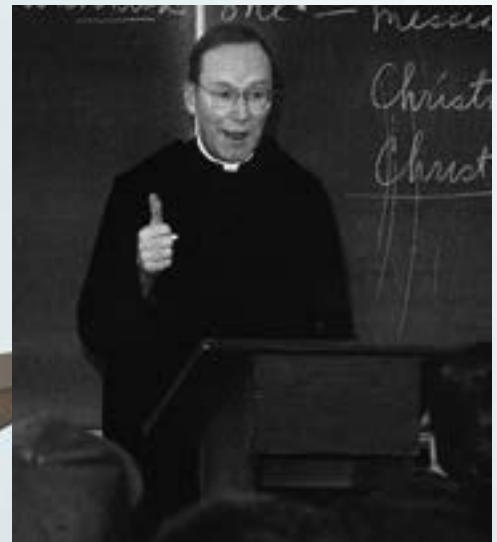

I AM MOST THANKFUL TO SAINT ANSELM COLLEGE FOR: MY VOCATION.

Fr. Peter Guerin, O.S.B., arrived on the campus on July 1, 1957, as a candidate for the monastic community of Saint Anselm Abbey, following his graduation that year from the College of the Holy Cross. He earned graduate degrees in theology in Ottawa and Paris, and served on the faculty and as chair of the theology department. He enjoyed teaching courses in sacramental theology, Benedictine life and spirituality, and biblical theology. He lectured for many years in the humanities program, Portraits of Human Greatness, and led seminars in that program. He served as dean of the college from 1977 to 2002. At the commencement exercises in 2002 the college surprised him with an honorary degree. Since 1970 he has served on the governing board and as a trustee of the college, at the same time serving the monastic community as sub-prior.

“My fifty years of teaching have been very rewarding,” Fr. Peter said. “Teaching is one of the most powerful vocations in the world. I hope that I’ve helped instill strong values and faith in our students.”

Although no longer teaching in the college this year, he continues to work on the staff of campus ministry where he has an opportunity to interact with faculty, staff and students. “My office near the campus mailboxes is a convenient stopover for so many and gives me an opportunity to offer a good word or just listen to the joys and sorrows that mark the lives of those who make up our college community.”

Thank you, Fr. Peter, for the kindness, humility and gentle guidance you continue to bring to Saint Anselm College.

OUR MONASTIC COMMUNITY

The Catholic Benedictine tradition of community engagement and service is one of the foundations of campus life at Saint Anselm College. There are twenty-eight members of the Order of Saint Benedict of New Hampshire, most of whom live in community at Saint Anselm Abbey. As residents of the campus community, the monks serve in multiple roles at the college.

We are deeply thankful for the ongoing generosity of our monastic community. Each one has chosen to give both of his time and talent to this institution, helping to foster the sense of community, caring and spirituality known to be the hallmarks of Saint Anselm College.

I WANT TO MAKE SURE THAT THE COLLEGE IS HERE FOR OUR CHILDREN— KATHLEEN “KATE”
ROGERS COPPINS ’92

I AM MOST THANKFUL TO SAINT ANSELM COLLEGE
FOR: TEACHING ME TO BE AN INDEPENDENT
THINKER WHO IS ABLE TO CHALLENGE THE STATUS QUO - AND FOR GIVING ME MY CLOSEST FRIENDS.

- Kate knew she wanted to come here once she stepped on campus and tasted the food at Davison Hall.
- She was a softball athlete and credits collegiate sports with shaping who she is today.
- Father Mathias is one of the top reasons she volunteers to mentor sophomore women.

“Saint Anselm College provides an atmosphere that fosters independent thinking and the ability to challenge beliefs—and that prepares graduates to thrive in our ever-changing world,” said Kate Coppins. “The college gave me the opportunity to play an NCAA sport while I was here. Being part of a team helped me gain confidence, leadership, competition, organization and teamwork skills that have allowed me to be successful today. I am a division director and the director of training at the Boston Beer Company, whose brands include Samuel Adams, Twisted Tea and Angry Orchard.”

“Because Saint Anselm encourages all students to get involved, form opinions, challenge the status quo and learn with confidence, I graduated with a tight group of friends who continue to be inspirations for me to this day,” she added. “The friendships I formed here 20 years ago have truly shaped who I have become. We all have a common belief and value system that stems from being students at Saint Anselm.”

“Father Mathias is a member of the monastic community who has inspired me by how much he cares about his students,” said Coppins. “It is a pleasure to volunteer to speak as a mentor to his female students when he brings them together to discuss life outside and after Saint Anselm. He is so dedicated and caring in his efforts to give the women here every advantage.”

“Despite changing to keep up with the times, I believe that at its Catholic, Benedictine core, Saint Anselm College will remain the same. That’s why I continue to support the college in any way I can. I hope that generations to come will have the opportunity to learn, experience and grow in the environment here that I did. I am the mother of two little girls who play sports—future Hawks!”

For more information about supporting Anselmian Athletics as Kate does, please contact Joe Emmons '04, college advancement office, 603-641-7201, jemmons@anselm.edu.

THE IMPORTANCE OF GIVING BACK: ALUMNI E.J. AND GINA POWERS

WE ARE MOST THANKFUL TO SAINT ANSELM COLLEGE FOR: EACH OTHER.

E.J. Powers, '05, readily admits that Saint Anselm College has been a big influence in his life. After all, he met his wife at the school and started his career in public relations thanks to a seminar he attended in his senior year, which resulted in an internship and then a job. He gives back to Saint Anselm out of gratitude and because of his parents, both of whom were active in the community.

"My folks worked hard to support me and help put me through school," E.J. said. "That is also an important factor in my giving back. My family, especially my late father and my late brother, who had Down syndrome, were so proud of Saint Anselm."

E.J. and his wife Gina (Rotondi, '06) were married by Father Anselm Smedile, O.S.B., of the Saint Anselm Abbey and live in Manchester. E.J. has stayed in touch with many people he met at Saint Anselm College and is involved in events and activities. Most notably, he has served on the Alumni Council for five years, working on numerous initiatives to increase alumni engagement. Gina has also returned to campus several times to discuss career goals with students. The couple's conviction about the importance of giving back is enhanced by Saint Anselm's strong focus on volunteering, civic engagement and community.

The college's future, E.J. and Gina believe, is full of promise. "So much has happened in the years since we graduated. We are really pleased and optimistic that Saint Anselm is going to build on its years of previous successes. We hope it continues to distinguish itself as one of the premier liberal arts colleges in the nation."

For information about how you may strengthen the future of Saint Anselm College, through a gift to The Saint Anselm Fund – Impact Now, please contact Sarah Andrews, college advancement office, 603-641-7376, sandrews@anselm.edu.

A CITIZEN OF SAINT ANSELM COLLEGE— RUTH CONLEY '56, ALUMNA AND RETIRED FACULTY MEMBER

I AM MOST THANKFUL TO SAINT ANSELM COLLEGE FOR: EVERYTHING!

- Ruth and her late husband Austin were a leading faculty couple for decades.
- Today, Ruth continues to bring warmth and enthusiasm to every Anselmian gathering.
- The college has become her home away from home.

Ruth (McCarthy) Conley's connection to Saint Anselm College runs long and deep. A 1956 alumna, she is a retired nursing faculty member. She met her husband, the late Austin Conley, a beloved Saint Anselm professor, on campus. The couple lived close to the school even after they retired. Ruth attends almost every Saint Anselm event and said she thinks of the school as her "home away from home."

Because of their love of Saint Anselm and abiding belief in the power of education, the couple's generous support continues. They established the Austin and Ruth Conley Endowed Scholarship and the Ruth and Austin Conley Annual Scholarship. The Conleys have donated to other Saint Anselm causes as well, including the Chapel Art Center Fund, Geisel Library Fund, and New Hampshire Institute of Politics. Saint Anselm is also included in their estate plans.

Ruth strongly believes in giving back. "Saint Anselm has been so supportive and considerate, especially since my dear Austin passed away four years ago. It is the only way we can reciprocate," she said. "He would be very pleased. He loved the school so much. We used to drive up the hill and he'd say, 'Aren't we lucky to be able to come here?' Although we talked about moving near the ocean after we retired, he'd always say, 'But we'd be so far from the school...' We stayed right here."

That is fortunate for Saint Anselm College. As a couple and as individuals, the Conleys have made a lasting, positive impact on the entire Anselmian community. We are eternally grateful.

STAYING CONNECTED WITH THE SAINT ANSELM COMMUNITY— KEVIN E. BURKE '05

I AM MOST THANKFUL TO SAINT ANSELM COLLEGE
FOR: A GREAT EDUCATION BOTH IN AND OUT OF THE CLASSROOM.

- After graduating from Saint Anselm, Kevin went to law school and earned his J.D.
- Kevin is now a staff attorney with a medical center in Boston.
- Giving both time and money to Saint Anselm are important to him.

Kevin Burke graduated from Saint Anselm in 2005. He thoroughly enjoyed his undergraduate experience as a history major and tri-captain of the lacrosse team. He was an active member of the college community as a student and maintaining that connection remains important to him as an alumnus.

Although he makes financial donations when he can, Burke emphasized that it is not the only way to stay involved. In addition to attending alumni events, he mentioned assisting with recruitment efforts, volunteering at college fairs and acting as a regional recruitment contact.

“There are multiple ways of showing what Saint Anselm College means to you and that you’re interested in furthering the Saint Anselm tradition,” Burke explained. “I’ve been to a few college fairs and it’s really enlightening. It’s a great way to learn about new programs and what’s going on at the college. Monetary donations and giving time to the school both recognize that Saint Anselm is a college and a community with a purpose and mission I support, and a reflection that the college has done something right.”

Burke, who lives in Boston with his wife Paige, has donated to The Saint Anselm Fund as well as helped out at Saint Anselm events. He tries to be on campus a few times a year, he added, especially for alumni lacrosse events or to attend games. “I like to see the changes that have occurred, new buildings, who’s on campus. It’s good to get back.”

HOPEFUL ABOUT THE FUTURE: TRUSTEE DENISE T. ASKIN, PH.D., H.D. '08

I AM MOST THANKFUL TO SAINT ANSELM COLLEGE
FOR: THE STUDENTS. THEY ARE OUR BEST REASON TO BE HOPEFUL ABOUT THE FUTURE.

- Dr. Askin is an early American literature specialist who chaired the English department and directed the honors program.
- She served as executive vice president of the college and as a special advisor to the president for inclusiveness.
- Dr. Askin is a 2008 honorary degree recipient and 2009 Saint Anselm College Alumni Association Award recipient for her extraordinary commitment as a teacher, scholar and administrator at the college.

In her own words—For more than four decades, I have had the privilege of teaching, rooting for, and learning from Saint Anselm College students. A few years ago, when I had the chance to accompany a group on a Service and Solidarity trip to the Lakota Indian reservation at Pine Ridge, South Dakota, one of the poorest and most neglected communities in North America, I saw how the Anselmian mission played out in our students' lives. Each night the students gathered to reflect on the experiences of the day, and I listened as they invoked Socrates, Dorothy Day and Gandhi in their discussions of the Lakota people. Students from nursing, Great Books, and criminal justice asked: how can human rights be fostered in the face of desperate poverty? How can science or religion or public services or art make a sustainable difference in this world? The Anselmian education—that is, the Anselmian student—gives me reason to be hopeful about the future.

When I arrived at the college in 1972, there was a fine nursing program, but otherwise this was an all-male campus. Today women comprise the majority of the student body and they hold leadership positions in the administration and faculty. The changes in population, curriculum and physical plant have always strengthened the college. Now Saint Anselm faces its next challenge: to become the first choice for the increasingly diverse population of the region and the country. The Father Jonathan DeFelice Multicultural Center is key to this effort. Its lively home base is Benedictine hospitality in action. Its Transitions pre-orientation for students of color, its Difficult Dialogues sessions, and its excellent programming for faculty, staff and students have already made a huge impact on the lives of our newest students. For me, supporting Saint Anselm—and the DeFelice Multicultural Center in particular—is a vote for a hopeful future in the world our students will help to shape.

For information about how you may strengthen the future

YEMI MAHONEY
MULTICULTURAL
EDUCATION SERVICES

I AM MOST THANKFUL
TO SAINT ANSELM
COLLEGE FOR: THE
FACT THAT WE ARE WHO WE SAY WE ARE.

Saint Anselm College, in order to 1) remain a competitive choice, 2) offer a relevant education and 3) stay true to its identity, is adapting to the reality that demographics are changing and that our graduates must become more “global” in outlook in order to succeed.

Today Saint Anselm is becoming a more inclusive campus where people from all walks of life feel like welcome members of the Anselmian family—and where all members of the community are enriched by cultural exchange and diversity awareness.

Support from benefactors helps propel this evolution—thank you.

MOUNT SAINT MARY COLLEGE ENDOWED SCHOLARSHIP FUND

Alumnae of Mount Saint Mary College were welcomed into the Saint Anselm College Alumni Association as associate members in 2007 and in 2012 they established an endowed scholarship fund at Saint Anselm College. The Mount Saint Mary College Endowed Scholarship Fund honors and commemorates the Mount as well as its historical association with Saint Anselm. Once fully funded, it will create a permanent scholarship for a female student with financial need, academic aptitude, leadership potential and, in honor of founder Catherine McAuley, experience serving those in need.

Saint Anselm College is pleased to thank Mount Saint Mary College alumnae (MSM) for supporting this scholarship.

TEACHING THE NEXT GENERATION— JOSEPH PARODI '06

I AM MOST THANKFUL TO SAINT ANSELM COLLEGE FOR: TEACHING ME TO SEE HOW DIFFERENT THINGS ARE ALL INTERCONNECTED.

- Joe grew up on campus as a “faculty brat” — his dad is a chemistry professor here.
- Triple threat: Joe graduated from Saint Anselm with a Spanish major, an international studies minor and a certificate in education.
- Appearing as a contestant on Jeopardy was the most fun he’s had—so far.

Joseph Parodi entered Saint Anselm College undeclared and convinced he would end up picking a major at the last minute. But one day in Spanish class, it was a passion, and not just the vocabulary, that clearly translated for him.

“All of a sudden I just realized that this is what I want to do with the rest of my life,” he said. “I’m a really social person, and I think I’ve always liked languages because that means there are more people I can talk to.”

Joe graduated in 2006 with a Spanish major, an international studies minor, and a certificate in education. Since then, he’s been living out that freshman epiphany. He is a member of the National Language Service Corps, a Department of Defense organization of multilingual volunteers ready to assist with national emergencies requiring skilled translators and interpreters.

He is also the chair of the modern languages department at Marianapolis Preparatory School in Conn., where he has taught Spanish since graduation.

Teaching allows him to share his love for language and learning with a new generation of students. Joe brought a group of his students down to his Spring Break Alternative site in Honduras and plans on bringing another group to Spain in March.

But the most unusual place his travels have taken him is television. Joe appeared on an episode of Jeopardy in 2008. “I’ve watched Jeopardy with my parents since I was four so it was like a lifelong dream being realized,” he said. “It was the most fun I’ve ever had in my life.”

For more information about giving Anselmian Support as Joe does, please contact Sarah Andrews, college advancement office, 603-641-7376, sandrews@anselm.edu.

WE STUDENTS ARE GRATEFUL TO OUR BENEFACTORS. LYNDSAY ROBINSON '14 (POLITICS)

I AM MOST THANKFUL TO SAINT ANSELM COLLEGE FOR: BRINGING THE BENEDICTINE MONASTIC COMMUNITY INTO MY LIFE.

- Lyndsay is a senior politics major and chair of the Kevin Harrington student ambassador program at the New Hampshire Institute of Politics.
- She was the youngest woman to become student body president at Saint Anselm.
- Lyndsay has wanted to be the first female president of the United States for as long as she can remember.

I know that many of the resources I benefit from as a student at Saint Anselm College are made possible by the generosity of others. Especially the scholarships and grants received by more than 90 percent of the student body. One day, as a graduate, I will do everything I can to make sure that the next generation of students has these same opportunities. I truly believe that making a financial contribution to your college is the best way to make a difference.

A LEGACY OF SUPPORTING ANSELMIAN STUDENTS: PROFESSOR MARY A. CUNNINGHAM

- Mary dedicated her 46-year career to teaching Saint Anselm students.
- She left a generous bequest to benefit ongoing generations of Anselmians.
- Her name and dedication live on perpetuity through an endowed scholarship.

The late Mary A. Cunningham '56, who taught psychiatric nursing throughout most of her career, was a pioneer. One of the original faculty members to serve in the department of nursing, she also was the first member of the nursing faculty to teach in the humanities program. During her forty-six years at Saint Anselm College—from 1962 to 2008—Mary touched the lives of countless members of our community. She continues to do so through her generous bequest to the college that endowed the Professor Mary A. Cunningham Scholarship.

Mary is remembered as humble, appreciative and committed to the Benedictine tradition. Saint Anselm alumna Ruth Conley knew her well. “She was a sincere, loyal friend,” said Ruth. “You could depend on her. There was no pretense. She was Mary all the time.”

“She was a strong believer in the power of education,” Ruth added. “She was concerned about her students and would take pains to encourage them. I knew of one student in particular who was having a very difficult time. Mary took her under her wing and gave her extra attention, meeting her after school and during the summer. I’m sure there were many others as well.”

Mary Cunningham’s devotion to her profession, her students and the Saint Anselm community will live on through the endowed scholarship that will positively impact the lives of many deserving students. We are grateful to Professor Cunningham for this generous legacy.

If you would like to support the students and faculty at Saint Anselm College and learn more about bequests or charitable gift annuities that may benefit both you and the college, please contact Peter Labombarde, C.F.S.C., college advancement office, 603-641-7228, plabombarde@anselm.edu.

FRIENDS

Saint Anselm College is blessed with many friends. We acknowledge and thank the members of our extended family, including surviving spouses of alumni and former faculty and staff, whose support of $250 or more this past year represented a significant role in our success.

WAYS YOU MAY HELP SAINT ANSELM COLLEGE

Much has been accomplished, but there is still so much more to achieve. Your ongoing help is needed for Saint Anselm College to remain a competitive, relevant, and accessible option for the rising generation. Here are ways that you may give to the area of the college that is most important to you.

OUTRIGHT GIFTS

Cash

Gifts of cash make funds available for immediate use by Saint Anselm and are fully tax deductible for donors who itemize deductions. Checks should be made payable to Saint Anselm College. The college also accepts payments by American Express, MasterCard and Visa. You can give by mail, telephone, or online via the college's Web site at www.anselm.edu/giving.

Securities and Mutual Fund Shares

Gifts of long-term appreciated securities and mutual fund shares offer the benefits of deducting the gift (at fair market value) on the date of transfer to Saint Anselm. In addition, donors are not required to pay capital gains tax on the appreciation of the stock.

Matching Gifts

Many businesses and corporations match their employees' gifts to educational institutions. Please ask your human resources department whether your company offers such a program. You may also search our matching gift directory at www.anselm.edu/matchinggift.

Pledges

Pledges allow you to make a commitment to the college to be paid over a period of time. Installments are based on an agreed-upon schedule of payments and may be made by any of the above methods.

PLANNED GIFTS

Bequests

Including the college in your will, retirement plan or life insurance policy are three possible ways to make a bequest. We can help draft language for your bequest and provide information about how a bequest can reduce your estate taxes. Consider becoming a member of the 1889 Society.

Charitable Remainder Trusts

An annuity or unitrust can be established by transferring cash or appreciated property (stock or real estate) to Saint Anselm College. The college, as trustee, manages the trust for you or your appointed beneficiaries. You receive an annual income of at least five percent from the trust for the remainder of your life or your beneficiaries' lifetimes, or for a term of years. You also receive a charitable deduction for your gift, and, if appreciated property is used to fund the trust, you avoid capital gains tax on the sale of the asset.

Charitable Gift Annuity

This form of giving allows you to transfer cash or securities to the college in return for an annuity that pays you or your appointed beneficiary a fixed income for life. The charitable deduction depends on the age of your income beneficiaries, the annuity rate of yield and the amount of your gift. Saint Anselm pays charitable gift annuity income quarterly.

Charitable Lead Trusts

For donors with substantial assets whose estates, under current tax law, will be taxed at a higher rate, a lead trust can be mutually beneficial. It offers a way to make a significant gift to Saint Anselm without depriving heirs.

Real Estate

You may make a gift of real estate to the college or transfer the property into a charitable trust. You may also contribute real estate to the college while reserving the right to occupy the property. Each plan has its own unique tax and income benefits.

Personal Property

A gift of capital assets (such as antiques, art, equipment, rare objects, etc.) can sometimes be given for educational purposes for the immediate benefit of the college. In order to ensure full deductibility, such gifts must possess a "related use" for the college.

MONTHLY GIVING/PLEDGES

Through our monthly giving program you can divide your total gift into manageable monthly installments. For example, a gift of $100 can be divided into monthly payments of only $8.34. Or, for $83.34 per month you will have provided $1,000 in support annually and qualify for membership in the President's Society. Please contact Joe Emmons '04 at 603-641-7201 or jemmons@anselm.edu to set up a monthly giving payment that works for you.

THE SAINT ANSELM FUND – IMPACT NOW:

As every Anselmian and friend of Saint Anselm has individual experiences and unique interests, we are offering the opportunity to designate your annual gift to the area of Saint Anselm College that is most important to you.

Anselmian Scholarships

Your gift directly funds the education of our Anselmians. Support for this critical priority enhances our scholarship packages and helps ensure that students who are qualified to attend Saint Anselm are able to do so regardless of their financial means.

Anselmian Support

Your gift impacts areas with the highest level of need, as we apply them to where they will have the greatest benefit.

Anselmian Academics

Your gift allows us to attract highly qualified faculty, provide the latest technology and equipment, host conferences, bring in outstanding speakers and improve the educational experience for our students.

Anselmian Life

Your gift enriches, strengthens and helps create the programs that make Saint Anselm so rewarding for our students. It immediately impacts student-focused programs such as the Meelia Center for Community Engagement, Campus Ministry, Career Services, and student activities.

Anselmian Athletics

Athletic programs require excellent facilities, up-to-date equipment, talented coaches and resources for travel and recruitment. Your gift helps ensure that every Hawks team is fully equipped, well prepared and competitive.

THE BOB COLLINS SOCIETY

In 2013, Saint Anselm College created a new giving society to recognize our most loyal donors. The society is named after the late Bob Collins '37, who started giving to his alma mater as soon as he graduated. After he made his first modest donation, he followed it with a gift every year... for 74 years.

Consistent giving has a powerful impact on Saint Anselm College. In addition to demonstrating loyalty, a high giving rate among our alumni helps the college attract grants, rise in national rankings, and inspire other alumni, as well as parents and friends, to give.

Benefactors who made a donation to the college during fiscal year 2013 became charter members of the society. You'll remain a member by following Bob Collins' example of continuing to give every year moving forward.

You will be recognized—as Bob is—as one of our most loyal donors.

To learn more about Bob Collins, his legacy, and the society, visit www.anselm.edu/bob-collins.

PRESIDENT'S SOCIETY

Founded in 1992, the President's Society recognizes the college's most generous donors, whose leadership giving reflects an extraordinary commitment to the students and faculty of Saint Anselm College. Since its inception, membership in the President's Society has almost tripled.

Membership in the President's Society is obtained by making an annual contribution of $1,000 or more. Donors from the 10 youngest alumni classes who contribute $500 or more are Associate Members of the President's Society.

By joining the President's Society, alumni, parents and friends help the college fulfill its promise to develop students as critical thinkers, principled leaders and ethical decision makers. In addition to being recognized in this, the college's Honor Roll of Donors, President's Society members enjoy professional networking opportunities and an annual event hosted by the president of the college.

1889 SOCIETY

The 1889 Society celebrates those generous and insightful donors who have chosen to leave gifts to the college through estate planning.

These gifts not only help the college plan for future programs and help students afford tuition; they also provide our benefactors with an opportunity to make a statement of priority with their estate plans. Planned and estate gifts allow the college to prepare for growth of strategic initiatives and help our donors save on taxes.

Walter Gallo '58, a proud Golden Anselmian and former administrator of the college, is the founding president of the 1889 Society.

Thanks to a very generous donor, Saint Anselm College was able to complete a campus beautification project this summer. On your next visit to the Hilltop, please be sure to stop by to see the renovations to the main quad in front of Alumni Hall. You will see that the platform around the college's namesake, the statue of Saint Anselm, was enlarged with steps three-quarters around and walls for seating. New trees were planted alongside the quad and Poisson Hall, and the walkway in front of the Cushing Center was reconditioned.
