Film:
La Passion d'Augustine (2016) in French with English subtitles, followed by a discussion This award-winning Canadian film tells the story of a small convent school in 1960s rural Quebec that provides an outstanding musical education to girls and young women. However, looming changes brought on by Vatican II and Quebec's Quiet Revolution put the future of the school in jeopardy.

Friday, April 6 at 12:30 pm
